KIMBOLTON (HUNTS). — On Tuesday last, the fifteenth instant, of this Society took place on the grounds of Stony Hall. The day was lovely, which induced a large concourse of ladies and gentlemen to assemble to witness the spirited contest. Col. G. A. L., kindly consented to the fine brass band of the Beds Militia being engaged, which increased the enjoyment of the day. The competition was excellent and well-contested, the ladies excelling in number the hits of the gentlemen. The prizes were awarded as follows:—

First prize, Miss K. Gay; second prize, Miss M. Fernie; third prize, Miss E. Gay.

GENTLEMEN.—First prize, Rev. H. Lampard; second prize, Mr. Shurcliff, Esq.; third prize, Rev. R. S. Baker.

An extra prize for member visitors was awarded to Mrs. Faulkner, of Scarborough, Yorkshire.

MR. JAMES B. MCNEIL, (To the Editor of the Illustrated Sporting News.)

Sir.—I see in your impression of today you state that the bronze medal given by the Royal Humane Society to Mr. J. B. McNeil is the only ever given to an inhabitant of Scotland. This is not a fact, as many medals (both silver and bronze) have been given to inhabitants of Scotland, and it is always granted that after the act of rescue performed may entitle any one to that honorary distinction. There is no difference made as to whether the claimant is Scotch or English, as any casual reader might infer on perusing your account. Respecting this error may be set right. I have the honour to be, sir, your obedient servant,

LAMMON J. H. YOUNG, Sec.

Royal Humane Society Office,

4, Trafalgar-sq., Aug. 9.

[We are sorry to regret that the error pointed out in the above should have crept into our memoir of Mr. McNeil, but we are assured that our informant conveyed the information to us with the full conviction of its truth.—Ed. I. S. N.]

Gossip about the Pugilistic Champions of England.

FIG, THE FIRST CHAMPION.

The progenitors of a race of heroes were entitled to a distinct class of public approbation, and among them, stout, sinewy, and bold have been forcibly inherent in the flesh long ere the Saxon current of life in Merrie England.

One of these, the Norman blood that crept through an Anglo-Saxon birthright when the warm gushes of life sped from Harold on the battle-field, near Waltham Abbey. From the iron to the golden age, from the middle ages to the modern time, with the lapse of centuries noted to unrecorded time, we have had no physical descendants equal to it.

Strength, size, and weight, were all in it. At the time stated the word "go" was given, when each made a start, and the distance was accomplished within the hour, the grey pony bought for eight sovereigns, the opponent being a bay one, purchased for five sovereigns.

The distance was to be run, and the horseman who had the best time, was to seek, to find, and not to yield," was a favourite motto of "our forefathers who in that rude hamlet slept," and who in that wild field, with their lances were bold and valiant, and whose courageous and chivalric action have been times and oft made infallibly manifest with every cycle of revolving years.

It is to the year of 92, despite the reign of mind which stamps us as the heirs of an age of civilisation. From the 10th to the 12th century, the land, having sprung the personal strength, irrepressible hardihood, and undaunted courage and bravery of those sons of ours, who in their native army and in those signs and tokens of supreme power to which there is no limit in this sublunary world.

We published a beauty engraving of FIG, the champion of 1719, but press of matter has since prevented us from alluding even briefly to his history.

To that portrait we shall give our readers a few more details, and that he has not the pugnacity of the pugilist, but then he was more noted, despite his illiteracy, to the then fashionable and easily available printed histories and encyclopedias. Independent of this we have other ancient and far more modern instances of exterior plaudits, of the field, of naval, and military, and deportment in which those who cannot be classed amongst the cognizants would fall to recognise the customary plaudits as a feature of the art of the boxing frame.

From his jovial-looking face and outward development which Hogarth paints him in his canvas to posterity there was displayed a robust manliness; and we may fairly and Lavater-like trace joyful temper for a component part of his individuality, and a general right pleasure and even gaiety, in his deportment in the test encounter far above mediocrity.

FIG was more indebted to strength and courage for his success than to art, which he gained rather than from the effects of genius; in fact, he was extremely illiterate, and it might be said that he boxed like a savage through life. His figure, which is often subjected to the criticism of the present day, he would be denominating more of a slouching than of a neat, trim, and pugilistic. His antagonist was punished severely in his conflicts with him, particularly those who stood up to receive his blows; in making matches his advice was to let his adversary no pass over the character of an honest fellow, and was looked up to as a leading fighter among the most distinguished of the family.

FIG, for many years a sparing amphitheatre in Oxford-street, the beat Sutton, the Grasmere Pianist, and the Venetian Golliwog, and died 1740, having long before renounced all pretensions to the championship. We may further allude to FIG's career, as we shall trace his and the histories of every man who has claimed a standing, of course, that of the individual whose portrait appears in this test encounter.

BOWLING — NEWCASTLE. — The townsmen was on Saturday the scene of an interesting match between R. Blich and W. Chisholm, the latter dating from the year 1740. Mr. H. W. Wardle was stakeholder and umpire: the conditions were 19oz. bowls, for £20. The men had met before, when Blich was the conqueror. The game was hard, however, there was not much to choose between the parties, but owing to Chisholm having lost the first open game, gave him a couple of sets at an early period of the contest. About the fifth throw they were again equal, but as they threw along the bat, Blich proved himself to be the superior bowler, and Chisholm gave up.

GENTLEMAN JACKSON, THE RENOWNED PUGILIST.

(From an original Engraving.)

SWIMMING.

RICHARD GARDNER AND JOSHUA ASPINALL.

THE two well-known swimmers whose portraits we publish this week are to swim, on the 21st inst., in the Lambeth, Bath, Manchester—a distance equal to 500 yds.—for the Manchester Swimming Cup, subscribed for in that town, and the sum of £20 a side. The reputation both men give an unwonted interest to the match, and their performances during the last year of most exciting race will take place.

Richard Gardner is a swimmer of considerable reputation, and is one of the most skilful swimmers of the day. He has given distances in the Lambeth Swimming Club, and an incredibly short space of time; and the powers of endurance combined with the skill he displays are something marvellous. He has been the victor in many contests, and has distinguished himself in London; but we have reason to believe that the present one is the most interesting and important trial in which he will yet be engaged. That he will be a hindrance to his opponent is past doubt; and he is most certainly one of the most dangerous swimmers in the world.

Joshua Aspinall is a swimmer of considerable repute at Manchester, and has won many successes in the different baths at that place, and may be fairly considered one of the most brilliant champions. The specimen of Manchester swimming, which we have recently had, an opportunity of witnessing in London, and which is now to be seen in the "Illustrated Sporting and Dramatic News," is of a very high description. Aspinall's method of swimming is, in all probability, peculiar; but the truth is gradually coming out that peculiar styles of swimming, that is to say, a departure from the rectilinear, are far by the swiftest. We may instance, as examples, Mr. Kilkenny, Mr. Moore, Mr. Williams, of Birmingham, and many others, all of whom have their idiosyncrasies.

It is not too much to say that the competitors are likely to have a very tough job to beat each other. The swimmers on both sides appear to be very confident, and the match itself is of the most importance that will have taken place since the first competition for the same prize, in which Mr. Donovan was the victor. In consequence of the manner in which the London swimmers regard the contest with no prejudice. They know the best swimmers must win, and that, perhaps, is why it is that a Londoner won it in the first instance, but should be inferior when London may be supposed to still hold a supremacy which the departure of Donovan for the Red Sea has in some degree imperilled.

TYNEMOUTH SWIMMING CLUB AND HUMANE SOCIETY.

On Monday afternoon the annual competition in connection with this club took place in Prior's Haven, Tynemouth, in the presence of a large concourse of people who were assembled to witness the trials. The swimming steamer left the New Quay with the vice-president, Mr. Heath Taylor, the committee, and a number of gentlemen, and the competition commenced a little after three o'clock. The competition was under the direction of Messrs. G. S. Tyzack, S. W. Henzell, and Philip Clendon, who acted as umpires. The first thing was for long diving, to be determined by the longest distance swum under water in a given time of water. Prize, a silver medal. This attracted much attention, and was determined as follows:—Mr. James Fry, Tynemouth, 1 min. 20 sec.; Mr. Joseph Bewick, North Shields, 2; Mr. Conrade, North Shields, 3.

The Champion Swift Running Prize, the champion gold medal, subject to annual competition, the winner to receive a prize of 20s. The result was as follows:—The following was the result of this contest, with the times of each competitor:—Mr. Walter Gibson, Newcastle, 4 min 25 sec.; 1; Mr. Walter Gibson, Newcastle, 4 min 30 sec.; 2; Mr. W. Brignal, Durham, 4 min 45 sec.; 3; Mr. J. Bewick, North Shields, 5 min 3 sec.; 4; Mr. R. Reid, North Shields, 6 min 5 sec.

The next contest was the most amusing and exciting of the afternoon. Navy Prize, a bronze medal and half-a-guinea. A competition in swift swimming; distance about 200 yds. Open to the crew of H.M.S. Castor, or of any other H.M.s. ship, or of the Naval Reserve Volunteers. The second at the time of the Navy Prize, and the men who started to swim 200 yds. The contest was well and bravely managed, the men all finishing in less than half a head. The following was the order:—James Foster, 2nd; F. Jordan, 3; Thomas Rymer, 4; George Hayman, 5; John Moore, 6.

The next match was for fishermen, and there were only three entries, and the race was easily won by John Anderson, Frederick Taylor coming in second, and Alexander, third. There were four entries for scientific swimming, as follows:—Mr. Thomas Pape, Newcastle, 1; Mr. Walter Gibson, Newcastle; Mr. Thomas Gibson, Newcastle, Mr. William Brignal, Durham. The times in the water were very elegant, but the judges, after a good deal of consultation, awarded the prize, a silver medal, to young Pape, and the decision of the match was referred to the president of the panel.

The proceedings concluded with competition open to all comers, for a bronze medal, and the second to receive five shillings. There were six competitors, and the race was extremely well contested: so much so that it ended in a dead heat between Mr. A. Hunter, a seaman, and Corporal Rickhards, stationed at Tynemouth. These two contested over again, which resulted in Hunter beating Rickhards by about a length, the result standing as follows:—

Mr. A. Hunter, North Shields, 1; Corporal Rickhards, 2; Mr. D. Tyzack, North Shields, 3; Mr. H. Avery, North Shields, 4; Mr. John Smith, North Shields, 5; Mr. R. Fenwick, North Shields, 6; Private Thomas Gunn, 7.

In the evening the members of the club dined together in the Albion Hotel, Mr. Pillet, the president, occupying the chair.

SWIMMING EXCURSION TO BRIGHTON.—On Sunday last a party, consisting of members of the London and Leander Swimming Clubs, started early from Victoria Station for a dip in the sea. As soon as they arrived at Brighton, no time was lost in getting to the machine, speedily provided for them, and a few minutes later, admiring specimens were to be seen in the briny waves and foamy spray with lusty arms; in fact, some proved so fast that a boat was sent after them, but its assistance was, happily, not required. Never before the hydromaniacs, in a large sprightly party, were amused by the swimming of two of our eminent amateurs, Mr. Wallace Ramage and Mr. Moore. The dinner, provided at the "Good Intent," was simple and ample—two great recommendations. After this re-

THE WINNER OF THE SECOND PRIZE FOR THOROUGHEREDS AT THE R. A. SOCIETY'S ANNUAL MEETING (FROM A DRAWING BY BEN. HERRING, ESQ.).

Crowe Alston, Esq., high sheriff of the county, consenting to be president; the Mayor of Bedford, John Howard, Esq., vice-president; George Glenny, Esq., being chosen as judge. The different railway companies have kindly agreed to run special trains there and back for a single fare.

CAMBRIDGE RACES.—

These annual races, for silver cups, were rowed on Saturday and Friday evenings, when the following crews started in the order set down:—Dunagan and Buttress, 1; Clayton and Watts, 2; Peach and Roe, 3; McDonald and Waters, 4; Webb and Johnson, 5. An even start was effected, but it soon became apparent the fourth boat had by far the best crew, and shortly after the start, Webb and Johnson took the lead. They held it throughout the race. For the second heat the boats started in the same order, when Mr. McDonald's boat quickly overtook that of Mr. Clayton.

Saturday evening the remaining three crews started for the final race, when Mr. McDonald's boat was again successful, bumping Mr. Dunagan at the bottom of the Long Reach. After a short interval the two remaining boats started for the time race, over the University course, about a mile and a quarter, and Mr. McDonald had the lead throughout the race, taking his place, and on the word being given, led off with a steady but telling stroke, which every minute increased the gap between him and Mr. Webb's boat. For the ast hundred yards the leading crew put on a brilliant spurt for the finish, winning by upwards of half a minute.

NORTH SEATON REGATTA.

The annual regatta on the river Wansbeck came off on Saturday, 9th inst. Owing to the recent heavy rain, the river was much swollen, and crews could take no place, though in consequence of this the scattered boats of the severals were prevented from attending.

SAILING RACES.—The following is a list of the winners and the prizes:—1st Cup, £100 (coble), £22; Storm King, 22; Perserverance, 21 lbs.; Merlin, 21 lbs.

SHIP GIG RACE.—This race was an exciting affair. First price, £2, was won by the Nimrod; second prize, £1, fell to the lot of the Sheepwash Lass.

Rowing.—The following are the winners:—Morning Star, £3; Post Boy, £2; Grata, £2 10s. Keel boats—1st race: Rosebud, £1; 2nd race: Tip the Daisy, 1s.

SHEPPERTON AND HALIFAX REGATTA.

The annual regatta of the above places took place on Saturday, August 9, the competitors being watermen, fishermen, &c., residing in Shepperton, Haliford, Weybridge, Walton, and Sunbury, when prizes were given for the following races:—single-handed punts, £3 the first, and £1 the second; pair-boats, £3 10s. the first, and £1 10s. the second; sculls, £2 the first, and £1 10s. the second. The races were under the management of a committee appointed by the local authorities, with the exception of the Abbot Thomas Rosewell, and the punts from Shepperton Ferry by Thomas Purdie. The racing commenced shortly after eleven a.m. with the scullers' race. The stations in all the heats count from the Middlesex shore.

First heat: Edward Rosewell, Blue, 1; James Beveridge, Black, 0; William Wells, White, 0; Thomas Stroud, Black and Blue, 0. The winner took the lead soon after the start, and won easily.

Second heat: William Rosewell, Black and White, 1; James Purdie, White, 0. James Purdie took the lead, and won the race.

Third heat: C. Clarke, Red and White, 1; Samuel Purdie, Yellow, 0; Moses Fulker, Black and Red, 0; T. Stroud, Blue and White, 0. A good race took place for some time, distance, when Clarke came away. Purdie was soon afterwards getting in full swing, when he was fouled by Fulker, which allowed Clarke to win easily.

Final heat: William Rosewell, Black and White, beat C. Clarke, Red and White. A very fine race took place nearly all the way, and some excellent play was shown by both, until Rosewell got away, and won easily.

PAIR-CARED RACES.

First heat: Richard Wheately and R. Purdy, Red, 1; Edward Rosewell and George Purdie, Black, 0; John Rosewell and Richard Smith, Green, 0. The winners soon took the lead, and never being headed, easily.

Second heat: C. Clarke, Red and Yellow, 0.

Third heat: A. Stroud and E. Clarke, Black and Blue, 1; Charles Pouller and Richard Strudwick, Black and White, 0; James Stonestreet and William Rosewell, Black and Red, 0. The winners, on settling down to their work, soon ed their opponents, and won easily.

DOUBLE-HANDED PUNTS.

First heat: E. Clarke and C. Clarke, White, 1; James Purdie and John Rosewell, Black, 0; Alfred Stroud and James Purdie, Blue, 0. A good race took the three took place for half-way, when White came away and won easily.

Second heat: William Rosewell and S. Purdie, Yellow, 1; John Rosewell and George Rosewell, Green, 0; John Strode and Thomas Stroud, Black and Green, 0. A splendid race throughout between the first two boats was won by a foot only.

Final heat: W. Rosewell and S. Purdie (Yellow) beat E. Clarke and C. Clarke (White). This was a capital race all the way through, as they never left each other, Yellow at the finish winning only by a length. The prizes presently by H. H. Dobson, silversmith to her Majesty, 32, Piccadilly, London. The cup is now being exhibited in the window of Mr. Phillipson, Station Arcade, Tynemouth.

ROYAL VICTORIA YACHT CLUB REGATTA, RIVER泰恩.—At almost the last moment the committee of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club have come to the conclusion of following the precedent of the Royal Yacht Squadron, and that is to have no regatta this year. As has already been announced the greatest dissatisfaction exists amongst the members that the usual amusements should be set aside, and the result of the vote of the club has been to do vice-comes, and Captain Charles Thellusson has been appointed vice-commander. The office of commodore, for which there are several candidates, has not, at present, been filled up.

FLEET REGATTA AT STIRLING.—This afternoon a flag regatta took place in the Firth of Forth, the course being from the Abbey Ferry Pier to Queensferry and back. Five races were entered to be competed for. Six two-cared jolly boats were entered for the first race—the prize a tri-coloured flag. The two crews were well composed, and in the final heat, which was held between the Star of the Firth and the Greyhound, whose crews had come in first in the preceding heats, the Star of the Firth, after both had shown considerable pluck, came in the winner by about two boat lengths. In the second race, the Star of the Firth, again, four boats were entered for a two-cared jolly boat. In the first heat the Greyhound came in first; in the second, the Star of the Firth. In the third heat, these two being brought to the scratch, the Star of the Firth came in a short distance ahead in the second heat, the Greyhound being second. The prize was a two-cared jolly boat, a two-cared 27 ft. gig, and a skiff. The jolly boat won by about a boat and a half's length. At this stage of the proceeding a melancholy accident occurred, which brought the proceedings prematurely to a close. The boat had capsized, and the crew, who were prematurely to a close, were thrown into the water. One of the crew, Mr. Nisbet, painter, Stirling, who was not a competitor, but had been attending the sports, had心得, along with a companion, a light punt or skiff, which luckily capsized at the Abbey Ferry, when both were thrown into the water. He swam to young men went to his assistance, and as he was going down the third time, a party seized him, but unluckily failed in rescuing him, and he went down in deep water. The lad is said, however, to be safe, as he has not received any cramp, or has received a stroke in the overturning of the skiff, which had incapacitated him, has not been ascertained. The body of the unfortunate young man, who was an orphan, was recovered on Sabbath evening, and was buried in a short distance from where the melancholy accident occurred.

QUOTUS.—The annual meeting of the Nottingham Calendrical Rowing Club for the silver cup took place on Monday week at the Newmarket Inn ground, and after some very good play and a most exciting contest, Mr. Train's side came out victorious by one shot only. Score:—First tie—J. Train, W. Rao, M. Hill, 21; J. Johnston, W. Taylor, R. Hunter, 20; J. Train, W. Rao, J. Johnston, W. Taylor, R. Hunter, 21; Second Tie—J. Johnston, W. Taylor, R. Hunter, 20; J. Train, W. Rao, M. Hill, 21.

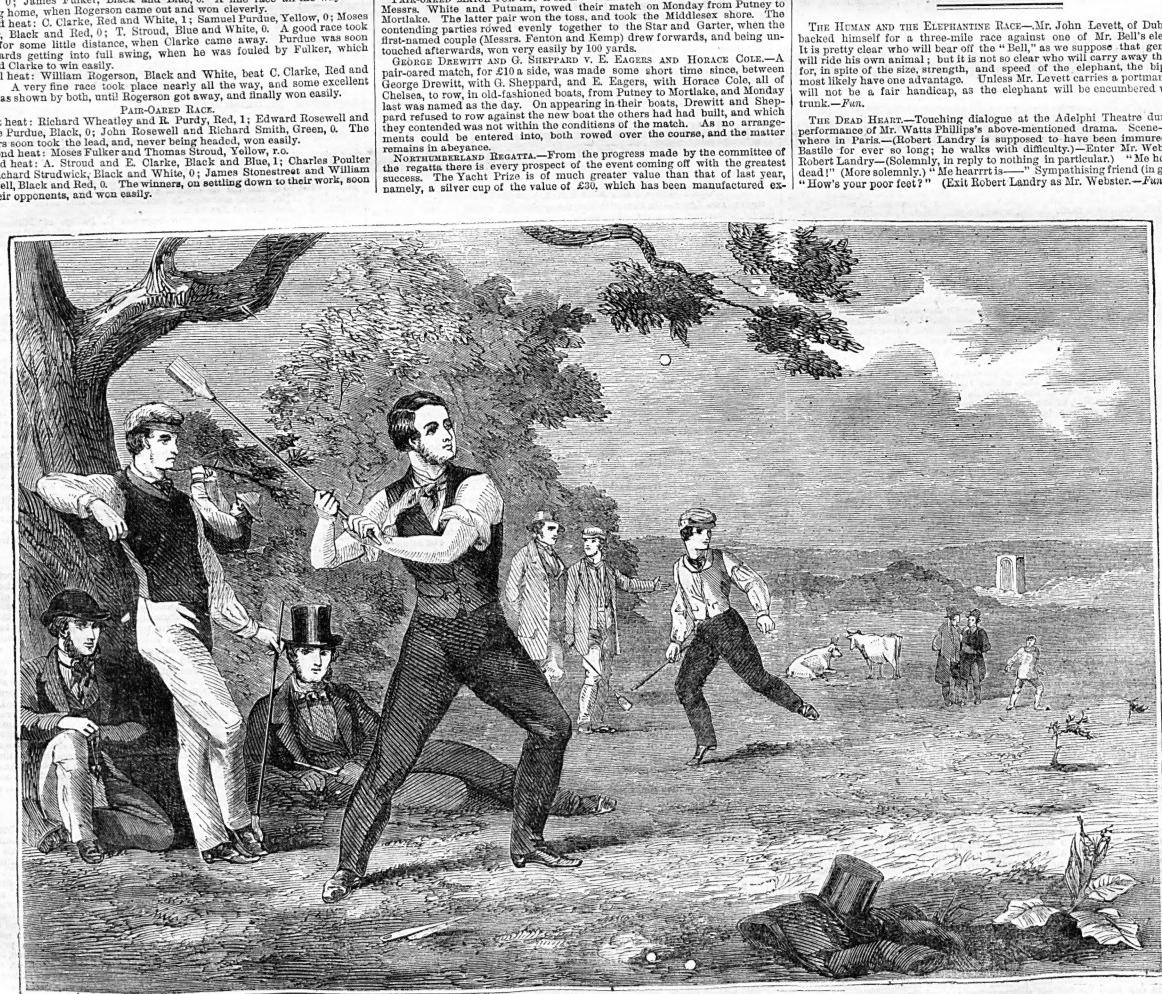

GREAT MATCH FOR £200.—Saturday evening the celebrated Birkenhead player J. Pattinson of Newcastle champion of the north, played a match at Birkenhead, 61 shots up, with 48 quots, 11 yds. distance. The same men have played together before but never a public match previously, and in several cases Ward, the champion, has beaten Pattinson, and made him a great favourite at 6 to 4; but the match ended opposite to the odds, for the finish Ward counted 61, while Pattinson got only 38, the Birkenhead player winning by 23 shots.

MARIONETTE.

This animal took the second prize at the late Exhibition of the Royal Agricultural Society, held in Battersea Park. It is the property of Mr. C. E. Johnston, and is 6 yrs. old. His sire was the famous Touchstone, to whom he bears a strong resemblance, but without the same bold and stately style. Marionette has a thorough Cambray head, is small and neat, with good limbs and rather short legs. His fetlocks are, however, pronounced to be "doubtful," whilst his action is very middling. We still adhere to the opinion expressed at the last exhibition that Marionette will not take the prize at the next. The Horser, the property of Mr. Blenkiron, a horse only highly commended, should have taken the prize. Horser is a five-year-old, by Wild Dayrell, out of Sally, by Ithuriel.

THE HUMAN AND THE ELEPHANTINE RACE.—Mr. John Levett of Dublin has backed himself for a three-mile race against one of Mr. Bell's elephants. It is pretty clear who will bear off the "Bell," as we suppose that gentleman will ride his own animal; but it is not so clear who will carry the prize, for in spite of the fact that the elephant is a quadruped, he will probably have one advantage. Unless Mr. Levett carries a portmanteau, it will not be a fair handicap, as the elephant will be encumbered with his trunk.—Evening Star.

THE DEAD HEART.—Touching dialogue at the Adelphi Theatre during the performance of Mr. Watts Phillips's abominable production of Macbeth.—Scenes—wherein in Particular, the dead heart is supposed to have been interred in the theatre for ever so long; he walks with difficulty.—Enter Mr. Webster as Robert Landry.—(Solemnly, in reply to nothing in particular.) "Me hearrt is dead!" (More solemnly) "Me hearrt is—Sympathising friend (in gallery). "How's your poor feft?" (Exit Robert Landry as Mr. Webster.—Faint Dayrell, out of Sally, by Ithuriel.

The handicap was run off on Monday afternoon, in the presence of a moderately numerous attendance of spectators. First heat, A. Smethurst, first; A. Scott, second; J. Sutcliffe, 6. Sixth heat, Mr. Walker's, 60; Gateshead, third; T. Scott, 60; Eltham, second; Mr. Walker's, 60. The last heat was a dead one, and the two sides were out and won cleverly by 3 yards. Second heat: T. Final heat: Mr. Walker's, 60; Gateshead, third; T. Nutney, 58. The last name and Hall ran nearly level over half the course, but after this Nutney came out strongly, and finally he won with something like ease. Mr. Oldham was runner-up; Mr. Cummings, handicapper.

On Monday last a very interesting match was run on the main road between Ferry-hill and Durham, between William Green, of Spennymoor, and John Burton, of Sunderland Bridge, for 210 a side, distance five-score rods, Green receiving two rods coming in. The race was fixed for two o'clock, and shortly after that hour the meet was adjourned, and the contestants of Green, Burton, however, was made the favourite in the betting, to 4 to 4 being freely offered on him, at odds a good amount of money was invested. They agreed to start by mutual consent, and after making two starts, and a long way they met, the race in his own hands, for after changing his man above half-green, he ran in the winner by a yard and a half. Mr. Jacob Fellers acted as referee.

TALLIS AND GASKETT.—This six-score yards match for 25 a side, postponed from Saturday last, on account of Tallis having injured his leg, is fixed to be run on Monday, August 25, at Lichfield, in lieu of Aston Cross, as originally placed.

SHILLAY AND COOMAN.—These two nine miles walking match for £7 10s. a side is at present at abeyance. Further particulars in our next.

Either match can be made at Mr. Ward's, the King's Arms, Whitechapel-road, next Tuesday night, or at any sporting house in Canterbury, where the veteran Mountain and his three sons will during the ensuing week.

JEDBURGH BORDER GAMES.

The ninth anniversary of these games, inaugurated in 1853 in honour of the Most Rev. Dr. Brougham's visit to the city, was held on Saturday the small crowd attending saw the men of Jedburgh in the presence of a large concourse of people, though by no means so numerous as in former years, but taking everything into consideration, it was highly successful, both in point of competitors and spectators. The number present was estimated at between 5,000 and 6,000, and the number of spectators, including visitors from the adjacent towns, would have been still larger, as many could not afford two days together, and some hundreds left for Edinburgh by the Saturday excursion train. The neighbouring towns were, notwithstanding, well represented, return trains from Melrose, Hawick, Kelso, and Kelso, inducing many to pay a visit to them now celebrated "44."
